HORIZONS 1965

HOLMES JUNIOR COLLEGE
Goodman, Mississippi
Volume 36

The primary purpose of Holmes Junior College is education. Here each student has the opportunity to develop both his mental and his physical resources, making each year at Holmes a profound experience in the shaping of our destinies.

The significance of this year in our lives is the only theme of the 1965 HORIZONS. We present to you a review of events, but more than that, we present a review of our growth.

Miss Imogene Jackson

Dedication

Quiet, unassuming, yet dedicated leadership in her devotion to Holmes Junior College and to her students characterize the lady to whom the 1965 Horizons is dedicated.

The Christian life which she has lived and the knowledge which she has imparted since coming to Holmes six years ago have been an inspiration to all those acquainted with her.

It is with sincere affection and appreciation that we dedicate the 1965 Horizons to Miss Imogene Jackson.

In Memoriam

In his hearty laugh and earnest interest in our activities we found the character of one for whom we all held respect and genuine affection.

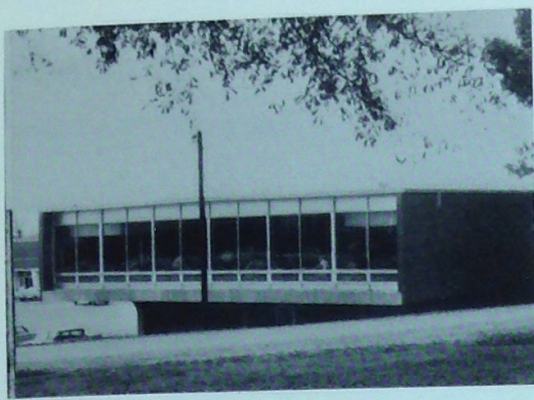

KENNETH R. VanKEUREN
Supt. of Maintenance

GEORGE MITCHELL
Trustee

A lifelong resident of Goodman, he took a vital interest in all that concerned his hometown and the college. Always civic minded, he served as chairman of the Hometown Development program and was for eight years a member of the Board of Trustees.

Life at Holmes . . .

. . . is a composite of activities, each taking its own position to complete the cycle of campus life and to create the whole student.

There are many things which composed our lives at Holmes
 . . . the buildings . . . the flare of the pep rally bonfires
 . . . dances in the Can . . .
 the ball games we won . . .
 and those we lost . . . hamburger night in the cafeteria
 . . . waiting for pictures . . .

Life at Holmes included the spiritual needs and stressed our American and Southern heritages . . . there were times of joy . . . of sorrow . . .
and there was vespers where we strengthened our faith . . .

McMorrough Library

Fine Arts Building

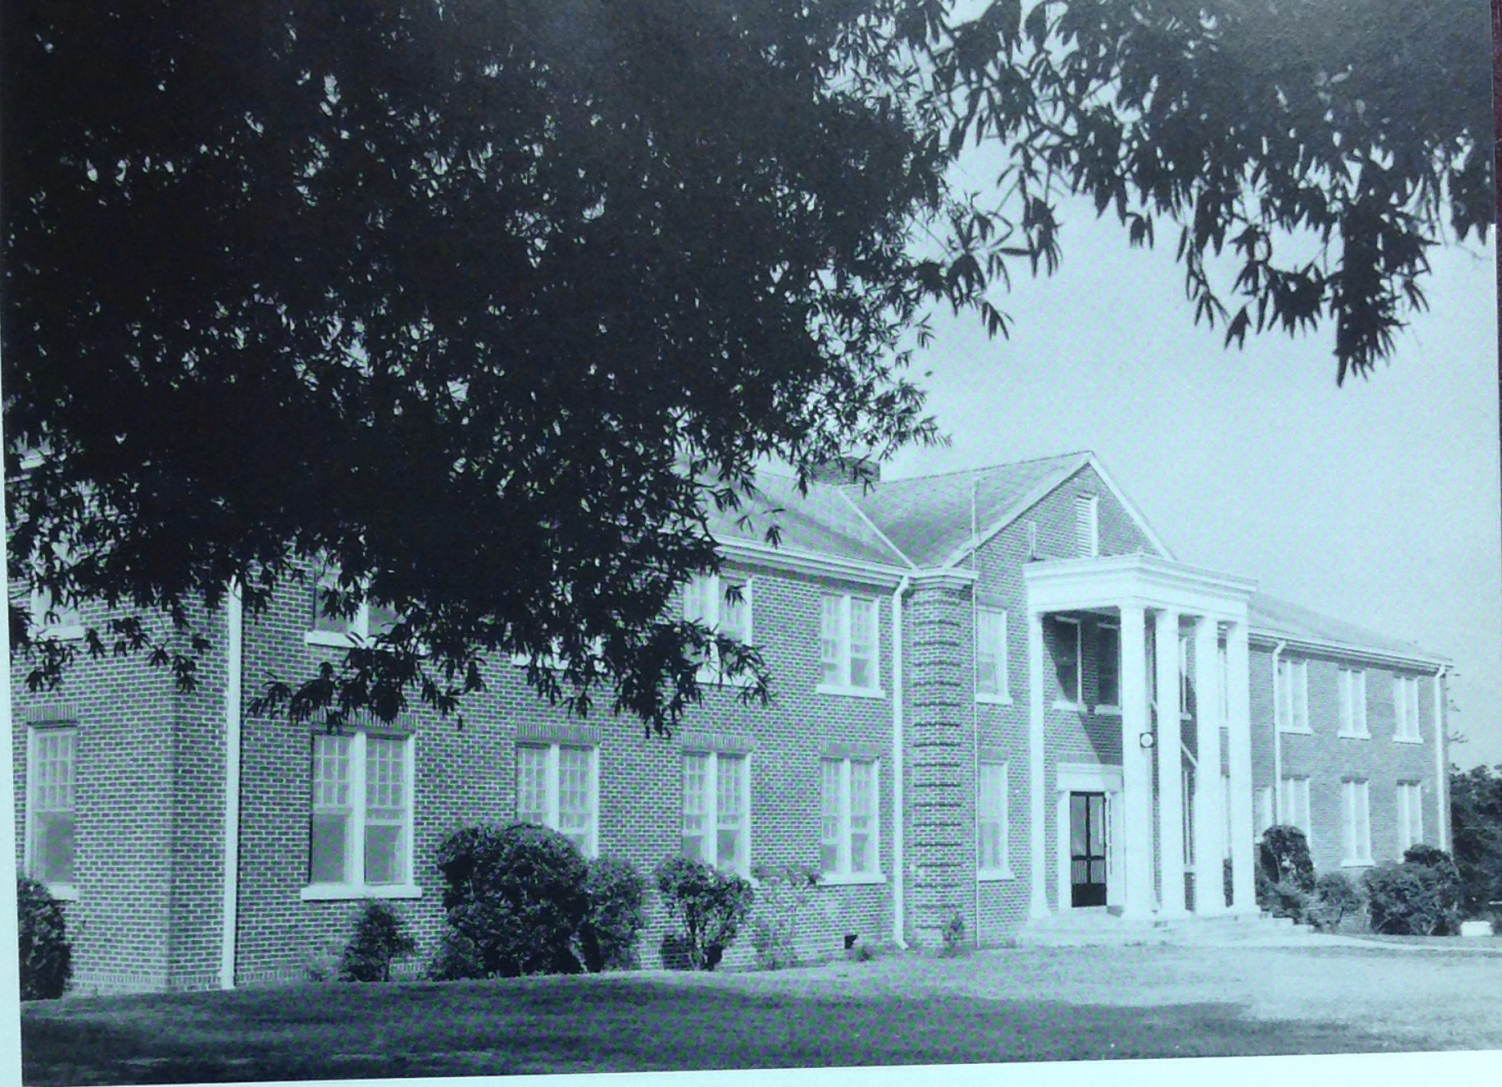

And of course there were classes, too . . .

dangling particples . . . pop tests . . .

fatal errors . . . the rustle of paper . . . the scratching of pens (or borrowed pencils) . . .

Boys Dormitory

. . . dissecting frogs . . . balancing practice sets . . . long hours in the library . . . fatal errors . . . the real reason for being here . . . final exams . . . honor rolls . . .

Carroll Cafeteria

Holmes Gymnasium

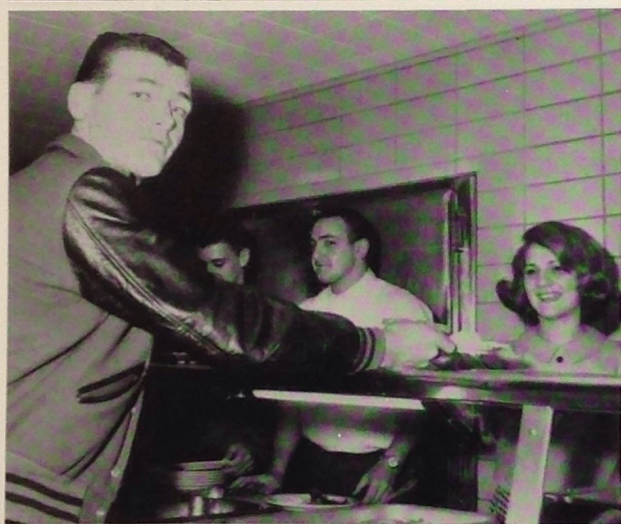

There were gym classes . . . band trips . . . parties
 . . . haltime performances . . . bull sessions . . .
 chapel . . . Beat Up Your Buddy Club meetings (better known as Karate) each Monday night . . .

Athletic Dorm

We waited in cafeteria lines . . . complained about the food . . . but we gained weight and secretly admitted that it was good . . .

Cafeteria Dorm

Lorance Student Center

In the "Can" we played ping pong . . .
 cards . . . danced . . . voted . . . had cake walks . . . pestered Mrs. Mc, Mrs.
 Douglas and Mrs. Mallory.

Attala Hall

Home Economics Department

Many were the things that contributed to our lives
 . . . each different . . . each significant . . . each adding to the completion of our year . . .

Cosmetology Building

We came to Holmes with a thousand expectations . . . we suffered a thousand anxieties . . . we shall forever cherish a thousand memories . . .

Amplifiers . . . picture tubes . . . oscillators . . .
transistors . . . resistors . . . speakers . . . stereo
. . . Hi-Fi . . . antenna . . . 30,000 watts . . .
These are some of the words that make up the vocabulary of the Radio and TV students at Holmes. Instructed by Mr. C. F. Moore, these students learn the how and why of radio and TV repair, thus providing an on campus service for faculty and students as well as preparing themselves for their future vocations.

Band

The Holmes Junior College band, under the direction of Ray Carroll, began the year with new uniforms and the anticipation of moving into the new Fine Arts building.

The band played for pep rallies, performed at ball games and marched in a number of parades before turning their attention to concert music and the formation of a jazz ensemble.

Drum Majorette was Faye Brock, Canton, and Feature Twirler was Betty McBride, Jackson.

ATHLETICS

Football

First came the cheerleaders, then the pre-game warmup, then down with the enemy! Some games were thrillers, others were heartbreakers, but throughout it all, win or lose, our team never lost faith in themselves. Not once did they give a thought to quitting when the odds were against them. Determination was etched into every fiber and sinew of their bodies . . . determination to do their best even in the face of an overwhelming foe. To the great game of football these boys are a tribute, for they are the epitome of the great competitive American spirit. These are the type of boys who live by the rule of a great coach: "The victory doesn't always go to the bigger or faster man, for sooner or later the man who wins is the fellow who thinks he can."

Give 'em hell, Bulldogs!

Gosh, those guys are big!

Football

Fired with a youthful enthusiasm and led by a new mentor, Coach Jack Hemphill, the HAHS Bulldogs produced for themselves and their followers a successful season. Playing a shortened schedule, the Bulldogs chalked up a 4-2-1 season record.

Though some valuable seniors will be lost, the wealth of youthful talent may more than make up for this next season.

Decorating for the game are the Bulldog cheerleaders Sharon, Merle Ann, Sue, Barbara, Rose and Lillian.

Guiding the Bulldogs in their successful season was Coach Jack Hemphill.

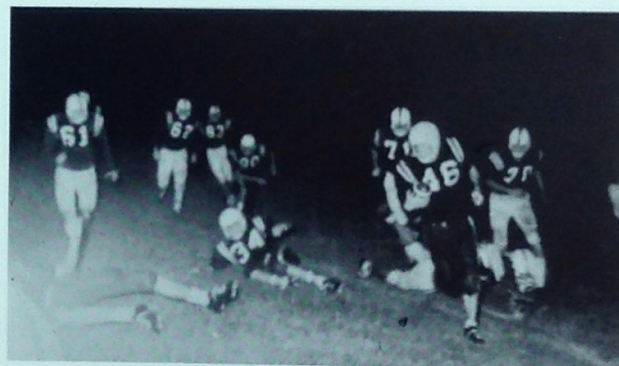

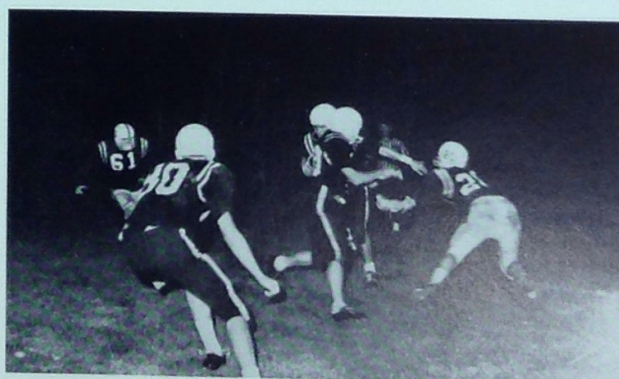

Hard-nosed Bulldog defense stops Flora's halfback.
